

Asenjo & Manso 'Ceres'

(DO Ribera del Duero)

100% Tinta del País (Tempranillo)

The Ceres is a small production wine made from 50 year old Tinta del Pais vines, named after the Greek God of the harvest and fertility. A delicious style of Ribera del Duero that offers dense fruit and supple oak content, but also integrates the classic markers of the region. Full of rich leather notes and cherry, the Ceres shows spiciness and dark fruits, as well as hints of eucalyptus. Clean oak notes lead to a satisfying finish of red and black fruits. Confident and very well-balanced.

Bon Vivant

Asenjo & Manso 'Ceres'

(DO Ribera del Duero)

100% Tinta del País (Tempranillo)

The Ceres is a small production wine made from 50 year old Tinta del Pais vines, named after the Greek God of the harvest and fertility. A delicious style of Ribera del Duero that offers dense fruit and supple oak content, but also integrates the classic markers of the region. Full of rich leather notes and cherry, the Ceres shows spiciness and dark fruits, as well as hints of eucalyptus. Clean oak notes lead to a satisfying finish of red and black fruits. Confident and very well-balanced.

Bon Vivant

Asenjo & Manso 'Ceres'

(DO Ribera del Duero)

100% Tinta del País (Tempranillo)

The Ceres is a small production wine made from 50 year old Tinta del Pais vines, named after the Greek God of the harvest and fertility. A delicious style of Ribera del Duero that offers dense fruit and supple oak content, but also integrates the classic markers of the region. Full of rich leather notes and cherry, the Ceres shows spiciness and dark fruits, as well as hints of eucalyptus. Clean oak notes lead to a satisfying finish of red and black fruits. Confident and very well-balanced.

Bon Vivant

Asenjo & Manso 'Ceres'

(DO Ribera del Duero)

100% Tinta del País (Tempranillo)

The Ceres is a small production wine made from 50 year old Tinta del Pais vines, named after the Greek God of the harvest and fertility. A delicious style of Ribera del Duero that offers dense fruit and supple oak content, but also integrates the classic markers of the region. Full of rich leather notes and cherry, the Ceres shows spiciness and dark fruits, as well as hints of eucalyptus. Clean oak notes lead to a satisfying finish of red and black fruits. Confident and very well-balanced.

Bon Vivant

Asenjo & Manso 'Ceres'

(DO Ribera del Duero)

100% Tinta del País (Tempranillo)

The Ceres is a small production wine made from 50 year old Tinta del Pais vines, named after the Greek God of the harvest and fertility. A delicious style of Ribera del Duero that offers dense fruit and supple oak content, but also integrates the classic markers of the region. Full of rich leather notes and cherry, the Ceres shows spiciness and dark fruits, as well as hints of eucalyptus. Clean oak notes lead to a satisfying finish of red and black fruits. Confident and very well-balanced.

Bon Vivant

Asenjo Asenjo & Manso 'Ceres'

(DO Ribera del Duero)

100% Tinta del País (Tempranillo)

The Ceres is a small production wine made from 50 year old Tinta del Pais vines, named after the Greek God of the harvest and fertility. A delicious style of Ribera del Duero that offers dense fruit and supple oak content, but also integrates the classic markers of the region. Full of rich leather notes and cherry, the Ceres shows spiciness and dark fruits, as well as hints of eucalyptus. Clean oak notes lead to a satisfying finish of red and black fruits. Confident and very well-balanced.

Bon Vivant