

Asenjo & Manso 'Silvanus' Edicion Limitada

(DO Ribera del Duero)
Tinta del País (Tempranillo)

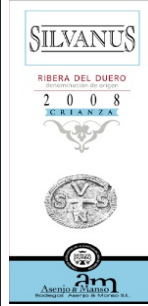

The Silvanus Edicion Limitada is a special bottling of A&M's flagship wine made with fruit from an 80-year-old vineyard. Named after the god of nature the Silvanus is an exceptional wine that brings together the tradition of Ribera del Duero winemaking and most naturally treated vineyards. The 2009 vintage is Jesús' favorite vintage that he can think of from his entire life at their farm, and the proof of this is in the bottle. Rustic and gripping while being gorgeously elegant and long on the palate, with integrated and delicious tannins that are woven around dark fruits, leather, spice, and tobacco.
