'Teach me the art of seeing my own history as if it were already ash in memory'

Asenjo & Manso was founded in 2004 in the village of La Horra of Ribera del Duero. Although the Bodega is young, the wines are amazingly deep and complex due to the 50-100 year old family vineyards. Their production is completely organic, with certification in some of their vineyards already. Jesús Asenjo (the grandson of Tiofilo Asenjo, who first planted the estate's vines) has been in the fields his entire life, and tends to the vines himself year-round, and even his elderly father still walks the fields that Tiofilo once planted. Precise and careful practices are carried out in their pristine facility by Natalia Calleja, where she believes in only stainless steel fermentations before oak aging, a light hand during the maturation, and creating wines that show the loving effort of the family estate extremely well.

*A&M stands for Asenjo & Manso, after the founders of the estate
Jésus Asenjo & Carlos Manso*

The A&M is the top wine of this small estate, coming from vines that have been in the family for 100 years. Under 3,500 bottles are produced, and only in exceptional years when the estate's oldest vines yield perfect berries. All vineyards are organically farmed, and the attention to detail at the bodega is exceptional. This wine is brooding with rich and dark fruits, strapped with earthy tobacco, leather, cedar, and balanced with lifted acidity, which adds to the sheer class and elegance of this impeccable wine. This Tinta del Pais is an extremely limited production, and is truly a gem in the Ribera del Duero D.O.
