(D.O.C. Prosecco Treviso)

100% Glera

Italy's famous bubbly, Prosecco, can be made in extremely large quantities. Il Colle however, is a smaller production wine that is still family owned and comes from grapes grown in the Conegliano hills. This excellent Prosecco offers a straw-yellow color with a tantalizing and lovely perlage, as well as a characteristic nose backed by a pleasant fruitiness. Dry and elegant on the mouth, it is a perfect aperitif but also pairs excellently with food.
