Luigi Voghera is nestled smack dab in the middle of Barbaresco country in Piemonte, in a small village called Tetti, situated between the three main towns of the region: Treiso, Neive, & Barbaresco. In 1974, Luigi and his wife Pinuccia, officially opened up their lovely winery to focus on what their estate fruit could do best. Luigi has since passed on, but his son Livio has followed in his father's footsteps to a tee, and makes extraordinary wine from their sustainably farmed 22 hectares of vineyards. Livio has a small but beautiful cellar full of large old oak barrels to help age some of his wines, while still retaining as much specific varietal character from his grapes. Although Barbaresco is the true flagship of Livio's property, he is able to bring out a perfect and classic expression from every grape that he works with. As he has expanded his standard line of Nebbiolo and Barbera further, his Favorita, Arneis, and even Moscato are all precise and exquisite as well. Each and every year Livio strives to work more and more with the native flora and fauna for a holistic production, and it shows in the love that you taste in the bottle.

Favorita is known as Vermentino in other regions of Italy

Voghera's 2021 Langhe Favorita is a local white variety that is known for its freshness and lively fruit component on the palate. Coming from a fairly young vineyard for the estate, the grapes are typically harvested by late September, and go through fermentation for nearly thirty days in stainless steel. After a short rest, the wine relaxes in a bottle for a couple of months before it is released to the market. The resulting wine is fresh, dry, a bit effervescent on the palate, and has a delicate fragrance of citrus fruits and pear. Delightfully refreshing and exuberant, the mouth yields bright acidity, lots of pear fruit, and is very enjoyable with fresh fish or an assortment of cheeses.
